

Why are trees important?

Absorb & store carbon

Create much-needed oxygen

Provide useful wood & medicinal ingredients

Provide food, shelter and habitat for wildlife

Provide greenery, beauty and peace

Are a physical barrier, trapping pollutants, noise & dust

Leaves & dead trees provide nutrition for other plants

Roots stabilise soil and stop soil loss & flooding